What's trending in travel?

Celebrate the Festival of Colours

Authentic experiences are trending and our Temple, Tiger and Taj Trail tour of India is filling up fast for the 15 March 2016 departure, which centres around Holi, the vibrant Festival of Colours. March is a great time for an India escorted tour, as the weather is cooler and the humidity less stuffy.

PURPLE PARKING
LONGSTAY

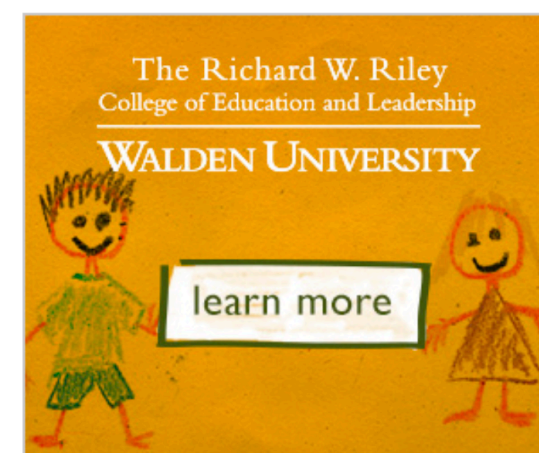

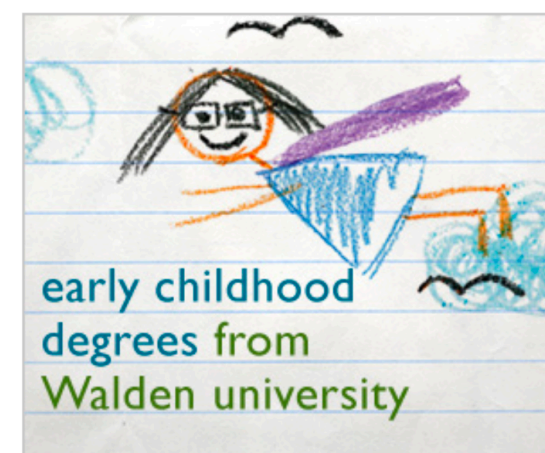

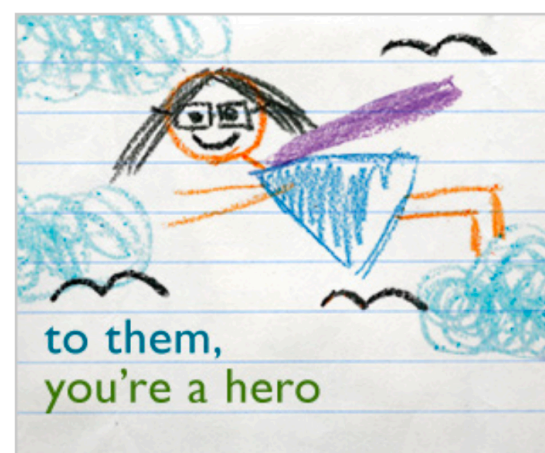

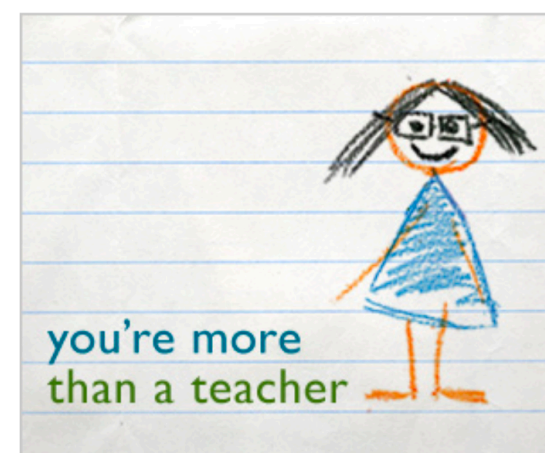

Hello [firstname,fallback=]

Lots has been happening here at Jellyfish over the past few months, including the opening of two great new training facilities in London to cope with the growing demand for our Training Courses.

Just like our existing space in Reigate, our new venues are bright, modern, spacious, and relaxing. They are each equipped with all the facilities you need from unlimited tea, coffee and chilled water to free wi-fi, lunch and snacks to keep you going. And all our Training Courses are run by our own in-house experts.

What our clients think

Cheaper Quicker Greener

Lower your costs, get better lead times and be kinder to the environment with Green Gift Cards

LEARN MORE >

Heading level two goes here

Revolutionising the gift card industry Gift cards are big business in the UK. The total market share is currently worth over £4.5bn, with a growth in market share of 10% over the last nine years*.

Cheaper

Taking the greener option doesn't have to come with a hefty price tag. Our environmentally-friendly laminated card costs as much as 60% less than PVC. If you're using the cards in your direct mail, take advantage of Royal Mail's discounts on sustainable advertising mail.

Quicker

Our gift cards are the green business choice. They're produced using materials that have been thoroughly tested, and come with environmental accreditation. They're also produced at mills certified with the ISO14001 environmental management standard, with paper accredited by Forest Stewardship Council and
